

Hayes game off tonight

WYCOMBE'S Berger Isthmian League match, scheduled to be played at Hayes tonight (Tuesday) has been postponed because Hayes are involved in a F.A. Cup qualifying round replay, after drawing 1-1 with Newmarket on Saturday.

But the Wanderers fans will still have something to watch, for the Reserves, who lost 1-4 to Harrow Borough on Saturday, will be entertaining Hounslow Reserves at Loakes Park tonight in a Suburban League game.

Wycombe's first team match away to Harlow on Saturday will be played at Epping's ground, as the Harlow ground is undergoing renovation.

ALL THRILLS IN 8 GOAL BONANZA!

WYCOMBE'S crowds might have slumped

By MICHAEL KNOX Wycombe 4, Dagenham 4

played J. Bastin and J.

George Duck nipped in to pick up the pieces.

Then it all began to happen in the second half.

51 minutes. Terry Glynn regained Wycombe the lead with an opportunist goal. Receiving a pass from George Borg, Glynn turned and as he was tackled, toe-poked the ball over the line for a fine score. 2-1.

53 and 54 minutes. Dagenham equalised for a second time — this time from a penalty incident, much debated by all who saw it. Keith Mead was adjudged to have handled the ball. But all seemed well when Lester dived to his right to save.

But the linesman had spotted an encroachment by a Wycombe player into the area, and Holder made sure second time, even though Lester touched this one as well. 2-2.

60 minutes. The visitors went ahead for the first time. Glynn gave the ball away in mid-field and from the ensuing break, Chris Ballard's cross found Ricky Kidd unmarked at the far post and he headed past Lester. 2-3.

73 minutes. Manager Mike Keen's decision to replace Bob Dell with Hardwick and move Borg into midfield, had been booed. But four minutes later Wycombe fans were cheering again with a typical goal by Tony Price, who levelled the scores with a well placed left foot shot, after an elusive run. 3-3.

79 minutes. The Wycombe defence at this stage was being torn to shreds and Duck outpaced Keith Mead on a diagonal run which set up a chance for Kidd who netted with a first time shot from the edge of the penalty area. 3-4.

88 minutes. Wycombe kept moving forward for the equaliser, and Kennedy had already hit the post with a powerful free-kick, before it came two minutes from the end.

Steve Long, who enjoyed another excellent game, took a corner, Gary Toll headed goalwards from the edge of the penalty area and Glynn turned in a flash to fire the ball into the roof of the net. He is beginning to pay back some of the £900 Blues paid for him at the start of the season. 4-4.

Even though time was running out, Dagenham still kept coming forward and both Duck and Ballard went very close to giving their side victory. The excitement was only ended by the referee's final whistle, which was the signal for both teams to get a stirring ovation as they left the field.
